Planning Guide

*As of February 7, 2019

Sponsorships through the South Carolina Bankers Association are a great way to bolster your organization's visibility among our member banks. To that end, we are providing you this planning guide to assist you as you prepare your marketing budget for the year.

The South Carolina Bankers Association hosts approximately 30 seminars and events each year. We are excited to provide you with a look at the 2019 calendar and the various sponsorship levels for each event.

Don't miss out on the chance to develop new business leads, meet and network with South Carolina's banking decision makers, and show your support for our state's banks.

In addition to our premier events - the Annual Convention & Trade Show, Young Bankers Division Annual Conference, the Community Bankers Forum and the Scholarship Golf Tournament- the SCBA offers multiple educational training seminars primarily for function-specific positions within our member banks.

Each seminar is developed to provide an "executive summary" of banking industry issues for that particular area. Additional training opportunities are available through a large selection of webinars.

This SPONSORSHIP AND EXHIBITOR PLANNING GUIDE has been tailored to outline each of these events' sponsorship opportunities allowing sponsors more exposure and recognition.

Note the dates of upcoming seminars and promptly return the commitment forms so you can take advantage of as much marketing exposure as possible.

Show your support of South Carolina's banks by sponsoring at the various events. Your membership and continued support of the SCBA is greatly appreciated!

Proudly serving South Carolina's banking industry since 1901, the SCBA is the professional trade association organized to effectively represent the common interest and welfare of the banking industry in South Carolina and to promote the professional development of its members and their employees. The SCBA's primary focus is to serve as a reliable and responsive source of information and education regarding areas of importance to the industry, and to be the key advocate in helping our member institutions by providing leadership in legislative, regulatory, educational and value-added services. Products and services offered by our Preferred Vendors and Associate Members assist our member banks in most of their third-party arrangements.

MEMBER BENEFITS

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

Our legislative and regulatory advocacy creates and maintains a business friendly environment for banks and their customers. We engage in state, federal and grassroots lobbying to promote favorable legislation for our members. We work closely with the American Bankers Association and with the Alliance of State Bankers Associations on federal issues and have frequent dialogue with our state's Congressional delegation. Closer to home, we're at the State House every day the General Assembly is in session, looking out for the best interests of our state's banks and the industry. We regularly review regulatory proposals and analyze their potential impact on the industry. A key component of our government relations effort is the SCBA's federal and state political action committees. The strength of these two PACs gives us the ability to support candidates for office who support our industry. Every year there are new issues to advocate for and against, and with strong PACs our voice is greatly amplified.

YOUNG BANKERS DIVISION

The Young Bankers Division provides leadership training and community outreach. The Division focuses on professional development, encourages networking with other professional groups and is the driving force for financial literacy outreach in the state. The Division raises money and awards college scholarships to the children of member-bank employees. The Division also helps promote the industry as an exciting career to rising college juniors and seniors and engages in recruiting bright talent for banks across the state.

COMMUNITY BANKERS DIVISION

The Community Bankers Division represents community banks headquartered in South Carolina. Its mission is to recognize the unique needs of those community banks and work toward helping them grow and prosper. Because many of South Carolina's community banks consider the SCBA an essential arm of their training program, they play a key role in helping the SCBA develop its educational curriculum. By having broad-based participation from our community banks, the SCBA is able to bring in high-caliber speakers at a very cost-efficient manner for participants. In addition, the Division provides valuable input on our Preferred Vendor program and the products and services that community banks need to operate in a more efficient and profitable manner.

EDUCATION

The SCBA offers more than 20 educational events annually, including conferences, seminars, symposia, schools and conventions, to promote the professional development of members by focusing on the constantly changing issues facing the industry in a relevant, timely manner. In addition, the SCBA operates the South Carolina Bankers School, consistently rated as a top choice for certification in the Southeast, with nearly 3,000 alumni.

MEDIA OUTREACH

We frequently speak for the industry to help promote banking through various media outlets and community forums. We are the recognized voice on industry topics, speaking on subjects related to financial services while leaving bank-specific issues to our members. We respond to media inquiries while advocating for favorable coverage on topics of importance to the banking industry.

MEMBERSHIP

Our membership includes bank members that do business in South Carolina and Associate Members that support our banks with valuable goods and services. One of the most important initiatives of the SCBA is to facilitate peer-to-peer interaction between member banks and business-to-business interaction between banks and Associate Members. An intangible benefit of membership in the SCBA is the lifelong relationships developed through attending and participating in many of our events.
